Term 3 Week 6

Dear St Joseph's Families,

This week we celebrated Book Week which culminated in our annual parade yesterday. Thank you to everyone who helped their child dress up...it was great to see the excitement in the children.

Although we shone a light on beautiful literature this week, reading underpins learning every day. Children who read and are read to every day have greater success at school. Exposure to good literature builds knowledge and extends vocabulary.

As you are aware, we have moved away from formal, "one size fits all" homework and now have the expectation that children focus on reading at home. Although we know life is busy, we hope that you will support your child in this important activity. Let's make Book Week, every day of every week.

We are looking forward to next week when we will celebrate our Dads and the special people who love and support us. We hope you can join us.

Depression

We often hear talk about Child and Youth Depression and how harmful it can be to our children. However, there is a big difference between a child who is feeling a bit low (a very common experience in our busy worlds where our kids sometimes just run out of puff and need to rest) and a diagnosis of clinical depression. Children can often feel 'depressed' about a friend's cold shoulder, a bad result at school or sometimes they just feel 'down' for no reason at all. It can become a concern if your child continues to have such feelings frequently over a long period of time. If it starts to interfere with their ability to manage at home and at school, then you should seek help from a skilled professional.

This week's SchoolTV topic deals with depression and what to do if you are concerned about your child's mental health. Tap the link for more information.
